Please note that the electronic version of the finding aid is partial.

Most of the files within the Progressive Conservative Party Collection have been arranged within the natural areas of their function on creation. Files relating to Annual Meetings, Young Progressive Conservatives, Elections, etc., have been placed within their respective groupings. Exceptions are the clippings, speeches and research reference series. The clippings and speech series were relatively intact, but there were also many smaller groupings of clippings, speeches and speeches which now have been integrated into the main series. The research reference series was established by the National Archives of Canada out of a variety of research and reference files that were found in a variety of places within the collection.

The complete finding aid should be consulted as there is necessarily some overlapping between the contents of the various series.

Forty-seven (47) reels of microfilm of selected items from the Progressive Conservative Party which were microfilmed in 1966 have been withdrawn from circulation because the original arrangement and extent of the collection has changed significantly.
