INTRODUCTION

The collection was donated in 1966, 1968 and 1974 by Dr. V.J. Kaye and additional archival material was presented to the Public Archives in 1976 and 1979 by Mrs. G. Kaye of Ottawa. Most publications were kept in the collection and are included in volumes 42 to 68. Dr. Kaye organized his papers at the Public Archives of Canada and prepared the initial finding aid to his collection.

Each volume is a box containing 20 cm. Of files except volume 68 which is a box of 8 cm.

Over 200 photographs from Dr. Kaye's collection have been placed in the National Photography Collection of the Public Archives. An interview on tape with Dr. Kaye is available in the Sound Archives.

A list of villages, towns and cities in Galicia and Bukowina from the period prior to World War I entitled "Przedmowa..." was copied on microfilm (M-7707) from the original loaned by Dr. Kaye in 1966.

Records including correspondence, notes and press clippings kept by Dr. V.J. Kaye during his employment with the Department of National War Services and the Department of Citizenship and Immigration during the years 1942-1947 are found in RG 26, volumes 1 to 12.

Some material regarding organizational matters of the Canadian Association of Slavists has been transferred to the Canadian Association of Slavists Collection (MG 28, I 238).

A modified Library of Congress system of Slavic transliteration is used in this finding aid, however some names, titles and words previously transliterated according to other systems were left in their original form.

Some correspondence is also found in other sections of the collection.

This collection is of particular interest to researchers in the history of Ukrainian Canadians particularly the first wave of immigration during the years 1891-1914. The material is also of interest to genealogists and researchers in Ukrainian family history.

Vladimir Julian Kaye (Vladimir J. Kysilewsky) Ph.D., C.M.

Vladimir Kysilewsky was born on 4 August 1895 in Kolomyia in the Austro-Hungarian Empire, now part of western Ukraine. He was the son of Julian V. Kysilewsky, civil servant and his wife, Olena Simenovich Kysilewsky. He completed four grades of primary education in Kolomyia and received his secondary education in Chernivtsi, Bukovina graduating on 29 June 1914.

After the First World War broke out, he joined, in December 1914, the Ukrainski Sitchovi Striltsi, A Ukrainian volunteer unit in the Austro-Hungarian Army. In 1917 he received a study furlough and entered the Technische Hochschule (Engineering College) in Vienna and attended Arts (including history) courses at the University of Vienna. At the end of the war in November 1918 he held the rank of lieutenant. During the years 1918-1920 he served in the Ukrainian Army as personal adjutant to Lt.-Gen. Gustav Adolf Zieritz.

During the years 1917-1924 with interruptions for military service he also studied engineering and concentrated on Art courses at the Ost Europaeisches Institute (East European Institute), University of Vienna. He obtained his Ph.D. degree on 24 July 1924 defending the thesis, "Ukrainian Nobility of he XVII Century". From the autumn of 1924 until January 1925 he lived in Paris to improve his knowledge of the French language and history.

He then emigrated to Canada and spent seven months on a farm near Stuartburn, Manitoba. In July 1925 he attended a short summer course at the University of Manitoba. In 1926 he attended the teachers' course at the College of Education, University of Toronto. In 1927 he took the short course in engineering at the University of Manitoba. During the years from 1926-1928 he was a sergeant in the Winnipeg Grenadiers, a militia unit and received military training at Camp Hughes, Manitoba, in 1927.

In 1927 he joined the newspaper publishing firm, National Publishers as a correspondent in Winnipeg, Manitoba. In 1928 he accepted the position as editor of the Ukrainian weekly "Western News", published in Edmonton, Alberta and he held this position until May 1930. He received his naturalization papers on 8 May 1930 in Edmonton, Alberta. He travelled in Europe from May to July 1930. From August 1930 until April 1931 he was assistant editor of the weekly "Ukrainian" in Chicago.

From May 1931 until May 1940 he was head of the Ukrainian Press Bureau in London, England. In this position he was responsible for writing and disseminating information on the Ukrainian situation in Poland and the Soviet Union. During the years 1933-1936 he also studied at the School of Slavonic and East European Studies, University of London. He studied under Prof. Robert Seton-Watson and prepared a doctoral thesis, "Ukrainian National Revival in Austria 1772-1848."

With the outbreak of the Second World War in September, 1939, he joined the British Ministry of Information, broadcasting to Canada. In 1940 he returned to Canada and farmed near Toronto. On 2 February 1942 he then joined the Nationalities Branch, Department of National War Services in Ottawa as liaison officer with ethnic groups and the ethnic press. At that time he changed his name to Kaye. In 1944, he was appointed head of the editorial section and in this position he undertook research on the problems of integration of immigrants, history of the settlement of Eastern European groups in Canada, and prepared department papers on these subjects.

With the end of the war in 1945 the Nationalities Branch became the Citizenship Branch of the Department of the Secretary of State. Dr. V.J. Kaye continued to work in the reorganized Citizenship Branch from 1 November 1945 until his retirement in 1962.

In 1948, the University of Ottawa invited Dr. V.K. Kaye to join the teaching staff of the newly established Institute of Slavic Studies. He accepted the invitation and continued at the same time in his career in the Canadian Public Service. In 1950 he was appointed Associate Professor and Head of the Slavic Department. He remained with the University of Ottawa until 1960.

After Dr. V.J. Kaye retired from the Public Service on 1 January 1962 he continued his research and writing and prepared a study on Early Ukrainian Settlements in Canada which was published in October 1964. He published a second study in 1974 entitled, The Dictionary of Ukrainian Canadian Biography - Manitoba Pioneer Settlers, 1895-1900.

During this academic and public service career in Canada, he was elected to many executive positions in various learned and academic societies. He was elected first President of the Canadian Association of Slavists in 1954. In 1967 he was honored for his research and writing by his election as Honorary President of the Canadian Association of Slavists. He was Chairman, Ottawa Chapter, Shevchenko Scientific Society until 1974. He received the Taras Shevchenko Gold Medal from the the Ukrainian Canadian Committee and was awarded the Order of Canada in 1974.

In addition to his doctoral studies and major publications, he wrote during his lifetime over 30 major articles in professional journals and approximately 1,000 articles were contributed to Ukrainian newspapers and periodicals.

Dr. V.J. Kaye died on 30 August, 1976, and was buried in Ottawa.
