INTRODUCTION

This fonds consists of series created on the basis of subject matter (for example, Department of Labour) or the nature of the material (for example, Speeches). The fact that a series made up of a type of material exists (i.e. Personal Correspondence) does not preclude the same type of material being found in a subject series. Conversely, the existence of a subject series does not preclude material relating to that subject from being found in a series based on the nature of the material (for example, Speeches).

Square brackets indicate information provided by the archivist in 1995. A convention of three letters and no period has been used in naming months for the sake of space.
