INTRODUCTION

Biographical Sketch

Cecily Peters, neé Goodman, was born in Toronto in 1924. Her grandparents, Charles and Sarah Goodman, had settled in the Toronto area in 1880. She graduated from the Toronto Normal School in the 1940's and taught at Clinton Street Public School, Toronto, until shortly after her marriage.

She first became involved with the Hadassah-WIZO Organization of Canada in 1948 after she married Bernard Mayer, an engineer who passed away in 1965. She joined the Deborah Chapter in 1948 and served as president of her chapter three times during the fifties and sixties. She became an executive member of Toronto Hadassah-WIZO in 1961 and served as president from 1965-1967. She joined the National Executive in 1967 and served in a variety of capacities including National General Secretary, National Vice-President and National Convention Chairman, 1983. She served as National President for two terms from 1983 to 1987 and travelled extensively across the nation. During the course of her career she has focussed her attention on Youth Aliyah, and increasing membership.

She established the first Aviv Conference for members age 45 and under.

Outside of her Hadassah-WIZO activities, she served as chairman of the 1969 Women's Division Campaign, United Jewish Appeal of Toronto and Vice-President of the United Israel Appeal of Canada, Women's Division. She served on the Governing Council of the University of Toronto from 1982 to 1985.

Research Potential

The Cecily Peters Papers are one of a series of personal manuscript collections of past national presidents of the Hadassah-WIZO Organization of Canada, the leading national Jewish women's organization in Canada, which are preserved by the National Archives of Canada. These papers span her two terms as president from 1983 to 1987. The collection contains excellent material on many of the charitable projects and activities initiated by Canadian Hadassah-WIZO in Canada and Israel. The papers illustrate her leadership role within the Jewish community in Canada and abroad. There is a large amount of correspondence describing the nature and operation of the organization.
