INTRODUCTION

The Albert Edgar Ritchie papers document the activities of a senior civil servant which held important positions in the conduct of Canadian foreign affairs in the 1960's and 1970's: Assistant and Deputy Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs, Ambassador to the US and Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs. They also include valuable files of Hume W. Wrong and Norman A. Robertson, men who were instrumental in the elaboration of a Canadian foreign policy in the 1940's, 1950's and 1960's. For further information on Mr. Ritchie's career and on the arrangement of his papers, please see the inventory entry on page ii of the finding aid.
