INTRODUCTION

The Hugh L. Keenleyside fonds constitutes 6.300 m of documents which cover the years 1918 to 1992. The alphabetical order of the files and their organization in one large series in which they were received at the National Archives were retained. Within this large series of files, six sub-series have been identified (see inventory for further information on the organization of the fonds).

Volumes 13 and 28 include titled files which do not contain any documents. These files were kept as a record of some activities of Mr. Keenleyside. To identify them, the phrase "File without documents" has been added to the description of these files in the finding aid.

The appendices found at the end of the finding aid give a more detailed description of the contents of certain files related to the writings of Mr. Keenleyside (appendix A = files 1-14 to 1-16; appendix B = files 13-6 to 14-3; appendix C: file 16-3). These descriptive lists were provided by the donors of the fonds.
