R10892 Hesson, Samuel Rollin. (1829-1915). Member of Parliament. Ottawa, Ontario.

Samuel Rollin Hesson sous-fonds.
Original, 1851-1915, 2.500 m. Finding Aid No. 2341.

2003-12-01 Samuel Rollin Hesson, the youngest of seven children, was born to John Hesson and Elizabeth Hesson née Dunbar on September 25, 1829, in Kilray, County Antrim, Ireland. In 1831 he moved with his family to Ogdensburg, New York, and the following year the Hesson family settled between Hamilton and Dundas, Upper Canada. Hesson was educated at the Dundas grammar school. On June 4, 1843 the Hesson family became one of the first families to settle in Stratford. Hesson exercised a variety of professions from 1843 to 1856: he was successively a lumberjack, a teacher and a merchant. He married Margaret Jane Polley, daughter of John Polley and Abigail Polley née Currey on November 21, 1855. In 1856, he was appointed postmaster in Sebringville, Canada West and was named justice of the peace. After having served as director of the Stratford Gas Co. and as chairman of the Stratford, Lake Huron and Georgian Bay Railway Trustee Board, Hesson was elected town councillor and mayor of Stratford, Ontario in 1876.

He was first elected to the House of Commons for North Perth, Ontario in 1878 and was re-elected in 1882 and 1887. He was defeated in 1891.

A strong proponent of Sir John A. Macdonald's national policy, and a staunch supporter of protectionism, he advocated the need for greater trade subsidies and lobbied for agricultural and mercantile interests. As the representative of a riding with a strong German background, he also pressed the government to encourage German immigration to Canada.

He died on November 19, 1915 in Stratford, Ontario.

Received in 2001 from James G. Ritch, Shanty Bay, Ontario, husband of the late Ragna Marie Conradi, granddaughter of Charles Ashton Hesson. A separate accrual was received in 2003 from Susan Taylor, Eganville, Ontario, step-daughter of James G. Ritch.

Please note that related files, including a file containing a train ticket for the funeral of Sir John A. Macdonald, are located in volume 17.

R10892 Hesson, Charles Ashton. (1860-1936). Civil Servant. St. Catharines, Ontario.

Charles Ashton Hesson sous-fonds.
Original, 1851-1939, 0.395 m. Finding Aid No. 2341.

2003-12-01 Charles Ashton Hesson, the son of Samuel Rollin Hesson and Margaret Jane Hesson née Polley, was born on March 28, 1860, in Stratford, Ontario, where he received his formal education. In 1882, he was employed as a land agent in Brandon, Manitoba, where his elder brother Frederick Henry Hesson had moved. By 1885 he had become a civil servant, in the employ of the Department of Inland Revenue, first in Brantford, Ontario, then in St. Catharines, Ontario, where he eventually settled. He married Agnes Ada Lizars, daughter of Dr. John Lizars Lizars and Agnes Anne Lizars née Valentine, on February 11, 1887 in St. Catharines, Ontario.

In addition to his work as a civil servant, Charles Ashton Hesson was actively involved in the development of the Welland Power and Supply Canal Company Limited (subsequently known as the Niagara-Welland Power Company), whose charter was owned by his brother-in-law, Harry Symons. He was also a contributing member of the Lincoln Historical Society, the Ontario Historical Society and the Ontario Horticultural Association.

He died on October 16, 1936 in St. Catharines, Ontario.

Received in 2001 from James G. Ritch, Shanty Bay, Ontario, husband of the late Ragna Marie Conradi, granddaughter of Charles Ashton Hesson. A separate accrual was received in 2003 from Susan Taylor, Eganville, Ontario, step-daughter of James G. Ritch.

Access is open.
