FINDING AID 683

INTRODUCTION

A succession of disastrous fires has destroyed much of the records created and accumulated by the Legislatures of Upper and Lower Canada and the Province of Canada. The sessional records of the Legislative Council of the Province of Canada, 1841-1867 (RG 14, C 1) comprise one of the few significant bodies of records to have survived the fires, though notably not complete. The series actually covers only the period 1854-1866. For the earlier years only a few fragments have been located.

Some reports of special commissions of inquiry may be found among the records of the Provincial Secretary (see RG 4 for Canada East and RG 5 for Canada West) and of the Executive Council (see RG 1). No exhaustive search has been made, so it is possible that discoveries may be made among these official records or the private papers of various members of the Legislature and its staff. It should be noted that many individuals who held Ministries kept copies of Bills and a variety of reports. The distinction between public and private records was not always clear and many official records can be located among the private manuscripts accumulated by office holders -- see for example the Bill Registers kept by G.W. Wicksteed, Law Clerk to the House of Assembly, in MG 24, B 57. Serious researchers would do well to consult the various inventories, finding aids and indexes for the Manuscript Division's holdings.

A fair proportion of the sessional papers were printed and can be located with the Journals. The printed Journals each contain an index and the printed Sessional Papers contain tables of contents by numeric order and alphabetically by subject or title.

It should be noted that this finding aid is by no means a definitive description of the records. More in the nature of a detailed shelf list, the finding aid serves to identify the location of particular types of records within the series. For each session of the Legislative Council, the records are grouped by type: Bills, Committee reports, Contested Elections, Minutes, Correspondence/Communications with the Governor and the Assembly, Returns, etc. Best use can be made of this listing by first consulting the Journals to identify the nature and extent of documentation relating to a particular topic. The finding aid will then serve to locate it. For example, an investigation of Charles Coxwell Small might reveal that he sought certain lands in Pickering Township and in 1857 was the subject of a petition (number 314, according to the Journal for that year) and a bill (number 264). According to the finding aid, the petition should be in volume 47 and the bill -- if it survives -- in volume 69. The numeric and alphabetic references to petitions, bills and other documents mentioned in the Journals can be used to locate them through consultation of the finding aid.
