

ROGER F. CLARKE.

A. World War I. $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

- (1) Diaries, 12 April 1915 to 6 October 1917, of Lieutenant Roger F. Clarke, 3rd Tunnelling Coy., Canadian Engineers.
- (2) Roger F. Clarke, "History of Mining at Hill 60" (original manuscript)
- (3) A.I. Schutzer, "They Blew a 10 mile Hole in the Western Front" - an article re: tunnelling Hill 60 in WW I.
- (4) R.F. Clarke, "An Historical Sketch of the Fighting on the Front from Ypres to Ploegsteert from the beginning of the War until the Battle of Messines June 7, 1917" (original manuscript).
- (5) "Hamilton Bulletin" (March, 1918) an article re operations on the western front.
- (6) George E. Cole (Winnipeg) - correspondence, 1947-1957 concerning the whereabouts of former members of the 3rd Tunnelling Coy, Canadian Engineers.

B. Dominion Land Surveyors' Association (3 inches)

- (1) Report of the Committee on History & Biography.
- (2) W.A. Scott - Dominion Land Surveyor - a biographical sketch.
- (3) Colonel E. W. Hubbell. "Reminiscences of Early Surveys" - a paper delivered at a meeting of the Dominion Land Surveyors Association.
- (4) R.F. Clarke "An outline of the Early Explorations & Surveys in the Canadian Northwest".
- (5) The incomplete manuscript of R.F. Clarke's paper concerning the possibilities of aerial surveying.

C. Miscellaneous $\frac{1}{2}$ inch.

- (1) S.A. Cudmore (Dominion Bureau of Statistics, Ottawa) Correspondence 1931-44.
- (2) Greeting Cards & Invitations.

(3)

(4)