BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Born in Huron County, Canada West, J.S. Willison worked for the London Advertiser, 1881-1883, before joining the Toronto Globe, which he edited from 1890 until 1902, when he became editor of the Toronto News. From 1910 until his death, he was Canadian correspondent for The Times and in 1925 he founded Willison's Monthly. He was knighted in 1913. Throughout his life Willison gave numerous lectures and addresses on political subjects, some of which were published in pamphlet form. Important among his publications is the biography, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Liberal Party: A Political History.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE PAPERS

Correspondence, 1880-1927. 5 metres (Volumes 1-50).

Letters received and some copies of letters sent, arranged alphabetically. Also, two files of correspondence, 1913, concerning Willison's knighthood (vol. 50).

Manuscripts, Notes and Speeches, n.d. 30 centimetres (Volumes 51-53).

Typewritten and handwritten manuscripts, notes and speeches relating to various subjects.

Related Papers, 1927-1935. 20 centimetres (Volumes 54-55).

Correspondence concerning Willison accumulated by Dr. A.H.U. Colquhoun in connection with his biography, Press, Politics and People: the Life and Letters of Sir John Willison (Toronto, 1935). Copies of Willison's correspondence, 1890-1926, and notes, lists and manuscripts relating to Colquhoun's book.

Clippings, 1866-1935. 70 centimetres (Volumes 56-62).

Some of the clippings have been arranged by subject and some by the name of the newspaper in which they appeared.

The Finding Aid provides a shelf list of the papers and a list of the correspondents in one correspondence series.
