CHRISTIE, Loring Cheney (1885-1941). Lawyer, Diplomat.

Originals, 1900-1941, 1967. 2.9 m. Photocopies, 1972.
24 pages. Finding Aid No. 189.

Loring Christie became Legal Adviser to the Department of External Affairs in 1913, after having spent several years in the United States Department of Justice. He was Prime Minister Borden's chief expert on International problems and Borden's confidential assistant during World War 1. He accompanied Borden to the 1917 and 1918 meetings of the Imperial War Cabinet, the Paris Peace Conference, and the Washington Conference. In 1923, Christie resigned from the Department and went to work for Dunn, Fisher, and Company of London, England, 1923-1926. After serving as Special Assistant to the Chairman of Ontario Hydro, 1927-1929 and legal adviser to the Beauharnois Light Heat and Power Company, 1929-1935, Christie rejoined the Department of External Affairs in 1935. He was appointed Minister to the United States in 1939 and held this position until his death.

Volume 1 presented in 1923 by Mr. Loring Christie.
Volumes 2-29 transferred to the Archives by the Department of External Affairs between 1968 and 1976.

The finding aid is a descriptive list of files and an index of file titles.

Correspondence, memoranda, reports, notes, articles, personal souvenirs and printed material relating primarily to Canadian foreign policy during World War 1, the negotiations of the various peace treaties, the foundation of the League of Nations, the Locarno Treaty, Canadian Arctic Sovereignty, and boundary waters agreements between Canada and the United States.

2	2	Memorandum on "Precedents on inquiries into war operations and on inquiries in Canadian House of Commons into contracts placed by Canadian Government Officials for Imperial Government". The title is in Mr. Christie's handwriting. (Dated January 15, 1916).
		Memorandum on "Inquiries held in connection with the war in South Africa. (1) Royal Commission to inquire into the military preparations and other matters connected with the war in South Africa. (2) Royal Commission on War Stores in South Africa." (Two copies, not dated).
		Memorandum on "Dominion Authority over Provincial Action Affecting Foreign States". (Dated March 11, 1916).
		"Debate on the Formation of the Coalition Government of May 1915 in the United Kingdom". (Initialled and dated June 5, 1917).
		Memorandum on "Secret Sessions - United Kingdom". (Not dated).
		"Duration of Parliament in the British Empire." (Not dated).
		"Extension of Parliamentary Term in United Kingdom and New Zealand". (Not dated).
		Memorandum on "Appointment of Lord Robert Cecil as Minister of Blockade". (Not dated).
		"Attitude of a Minister of the Crown after Resignation". A short memorandum on the resignation of Lord Randolph Churchill. (Dated November 15, 1916).
		Memorandum on "Special Register Bill in United Kingdom". (Initialled and dated January 10, 1917).
		"The Speakers' Conference on Electoral Reform in the United Kingdom, 1916-17, and Proportional Representation." (Signed and dated June 14, 1919).
		Confidential memorandum for the Prime Minister "War Committee of the Cabinet", (initialled and dated September 9, 1918), and a second memorandum under the same title, (signed and dated April 9, 1918). The arguments expressed are against such a body.

2	2	Memorandum for the Prime Minister respecting "War Committee Minutes". (Signed and dated January 21, 1917).
		Memorandum for the Prime Minister "United Kingdom - Machinery of Government during the War". (Dated April 2, 1918).
		"Canadian War Mission in the United States - Minutes of Council of February 2, 1918" P.C. 272.
		Memorandum for the Prime Minister "Conference with British Embassy respecting establishment of Canadian War Mission". This is Mr. Christie's report on his mission to the British Embassy, Washington, D.C., on the establishment of a Canadian War Mission. (Dated January 30, 1918).
		"Memorandum concerning Canadian War Mission". (Dated April 23, 1918).
		Confidential Memorandum for the Prime Minister "Need for Canadian Mission in London". (Initialled and dated October 15, 1918).
		"Canadian Representation in London". (Copy of a memorandum by R.H. Brand, August 15, 1918).
		Memorandum on "The High Commissioner's Office". The memorandum is marked secret and personal and points out the rather poor status of the Office. (Signed and dated May 11, 1920).
		Memorandum on the "Advice to the Sovereign from a retiring Prime Minister as to his successor". (Initialled and dated June 22, 1920).
		Memorandum for Mr. Meighen "Position of Parliamentary Secretaries on a change of Ministry".
		Correspondence - "Style of the Governor General as Commander in Chief", July, 1921. This is an argument for the abandonment of the term "Commander in Chief" in the title of the Governor-General.

		"Memorandum for the Prime Minister". A summary of the "Adjutant General's report on advancing the state of the Nova Scotia Militia by a new classification, October 19, 1866." (Dated March 22, 1915).
		A draft copy to "The Governor-General-in-Council" for the creation of the War Purchasing Commission.
		Memorandum on "Mr. Pugsley's charges with respect to the Shell Committee"; Memorandum on "Mr. Carvell's charges with respect to the Shell Committee". (Not dated). This is a summarization and critical review of the charges.
		Notes "On the dangers of divulging information as to shells, prices, etc., which may be useful to the enemy." A compilation of statements on the subject given in the British House of Commons.
		"Memorandum respecting the control of the exportation of Nickel." (February 27, 1917).
		"Memorandum, by General Hughes (See Despatch from Colonial Secretary, May 23, 1916, No. 516)". Comments on a new Order-in-Council, which "recognizes, for the time being, that for purposes of command and administration at the front the Canadian Expeditionary Force is under the direction of the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief the force of which it forms a part. But, ... for purposes of appointments and promotions control rests with Canada."
		Memorandum on "Derby recruiting system. Exempted occupations". (Not dated).
		"The Australian Federal Recruiting Appeal". (Not dated).
		Notes on the "Debate on Section 69 of the Militia Act (Revised Statutes 1906, c.41). House of Commons, 1904." (Initialled and dated June 5, 1917).
		Memorandum on "Sir Wilfrid Laurier's position at the time of the South African War". (Not dated).
		Memorandum on "Col. Bruce's reply to the Batie Report". This particular report led to a wartime reorganization of the overseas Medical Service and - apparently - was deeply resented by Col. Bruce. The memorandum is not dated and appears to be incomplete. Possibly a working paper.

2	3	Several statistical tables on: (a) Canadian population in 1911, (b) participation of the Dominion of Canada in the European War, (c) Summary of strength of the Canadian Expeditionary Force in the British Isles and in France as at March 28, 1917, (d) expenditure on account of war. Summary of operations of the Canadian Corps, August 10, 1918, with covering letter from A.E. Kemp. A "Secret and Confidential Memorandum for the Prime Minister" on the status of Canada's Navy. Rather short in length but highly critical in content and advocating "a radical reorganization of the Naval Service Department". (Signed and dated October 6, 1918). "Notes respecting scholarships for Canadian Soldiers in British Universities and Schools of Technology." A memorandum on "The Siberian Expeditionary Force - remarks of Hon. H.S. Beland in House of Commons, June 10, 1919". (Signed and dated June 12, 1919). Statistical data on the effect of war on economic position. (Not dated). A memorandum (for the P.M.?) in respect of a speech and a copy of the speech. (Not dated). A short article "The outlook in Canada". In upper right hand corner a pencilled notation "Journal of Commerce, Montreal". Corrections are in Sir Robert Borden's handwriting. Some "notes" on the future of Canada. (Not dated). A draft copy titled "For the Canadian Magazine, July 1917". Seems to deal with the development of Canada in rather patriotic terms. A memorandum - untitled - arguing the constitutionality of the Canadian Government to employ Canadian troops outside the Dominion, (Not dated). This memorandum appears in printed form as "contributed", in the Montreal Gazette, December 7, 1917. Copy of a letter addressed to "R.B. Bennett, Esq. K.C., Calgary, Alta.", dated Sept. 11, 1918. This letter deals with criticisms voiced by Mr. Bennett in reference to some aspects of the Military Service Act. The tone of the letter, while remaining polite, is rather cutting.
