

MacDonnell Family

MG 24, I 151

Edward MacDonnell (1766-1812) married Ann Johnson (1774-1848); daughter of Sir John Johnson; their son, Charles MacDonnell (fl.1825-60) married Ann Turner, daughter of John Turner (d.1835), court jeweller to William IV. Charles MacDonnell's daughter, Katherine Sophia MacDonnell (1836-1911) married her cousin Archibald Kennedy Johnson (1839-73); their son Sir Edward Gordon Johnson (1867-1957) was the 5th baronet. Another daughter, Frances MacDonnell (1834-1911), married William Wilson (1835-89), sometime Law Clerk of the House of Commons; their daughter, Mary Frances (Mollie) Wilson, married Gustav Adolph Kühring (1857-1923). All of these family connections are reflected in the papers.

The papers are arranged in series, as follows:

Family correspondence, chiefly of Charles MacDonnell and his children, 1800-1938 (pages 1-179);

Papers concerning the estates of Christopher Wilson, Dr. William Wilson, and Francis Bayley (correspondence, accounts and wills), 1797-1872 (pp. 180-245);

Papers concerning the MacDonnell-Johnson estate (deeds and bills of sale), 1797-1923 (pp. 246-343);

Commissions, letters patent and diplomas, 1815-1915 (pp. 344-368);

Extracts from parish registers and genealogical notes, 1797-1923 (pp. 369-422);

Miscellaneous items (pp. 423-530).
