GEORGE JOHNSON PAPERS, ~~1900~~-1910. 2 feet, 8 inches.

George Johnson (1837-1911) was born at Annapolis Royal, N.S. and spent a number of years as a journalist before being appointed statistician with the Department of Agriculture in 1887 and Dominion Statistician in 1897. Author of a number of books on Canadian resources, he consented to complete the biography of Joseph Howe the writing of which was begun by G.M. Grant of Queen's University and interrupted by his death in 1902.

The papers, which consist chiefly of letters, notes, and newspaper clippings arranged by subject file, were received in 1924.
