UNDERHILL, Frank Hawkins (1889-1971). Historian, Professor, Author.

Originals, 1896-1972. 18.5 m. Finding Aid No. 430.

Frank H. Underhill was a Professor of History at the University of Saskatchewan, 1914-1927, at the University of Toronto, 1927-1955 and at Carleton University, 1964-1971. From 1955-1959 he was Curator of Laurier House and from 1956 a member of the Senate at Carleton University. Professor Underhill was one of the founders of the C.C.F. and a prominent member of the League for Social Reconstruction. Several volumes of his writings have been published, including In Search of Canadian Liberalism and The Image of Confederation. He published hundreds of articles on historical and contemporary topics and gave a large number of lectures before groups and on national radio.

A gift of four feet of material was made in 1967, 1968 and 1971-1972 by Professor Underhill; the remainder was given by Mrs. F.H. Underhill in 1973 and 1977. Typescripts of interviews acquired in 1968, Notes found in Professor Underhill's books were presented by Carleton University in 1979.

The finding aid No. 430 provides indexes to the correspondence and writings series and a file list of the research files series.
