LAUDER, William (c.1793-1845). Contractor.

Microfilm, 1838-1841. Reel M-4602. Finding Aid no. 490

William Lauder (c.1793-1845) worked as a masonry contractor in Montreal and environs. He constructed part of McGill College, works on the Chambly Canal, sewers and harbour works for Montreal, as well as private residences and commercial buildings in the city.

Copied in 1977 from the originals in the custody of Mr. & Mrs. D.E. Clark, Coronado, California.

Ledger kept by William Lauder to record accounts for construction projects, 1838-1841. During part of this time he worked in partnership with John Whitelaw and William Tenant (or Tennant) on the Chambly Canal, under the name of Lauder, Whitelaw & Tenant.
