Arthur William Currie (1875-1933)

Soldier, Educator

Original, 1914-1935. 16 feet,9 inches.

Photocopy, 1916-1917. 1 inch.

General Sir Arthur William Currie was born in Napperton, Ontario and trained as a teacher in the neighbouring town of Strathroy. From 1894 to 1900 he taught in Sydney and Victoria, British Columbia. He was appointed principal and vice-chancellor of McGill University, Montreal in 1920.

From 1897 to 1914, Sir Arthur served in the British Columbia Brigade, Canadian Garrison Artillery, In 1909, Lieutenant-Colonel Currie commanded this Regiment. He commanded the 50th Regiment Gordon Highlanders overseas in 1914 and, in September 1915, became Commander of the First Canadian Division. As Lieutenant-General, Currie was made Commander of the Canadian Corps in 1917 and after the war, commanded Canadian forces on the Rhine. On his return to Canada in 1919, he was promoted to the rank of General (first General in the Canadian Army), and served briefly as Inspector General of the Canadian militia.
