INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN / LE CONSEIL INTERNATIONAL
DES FEMMES (est. 1893)

Originals, 1893-1939, 1947-1961, n.d. 9.6 m. Finding Aid No. 1254.

The International Council of Women is a federation of National Councils of Women in all countries, these councils themselves being federations of Societies and Associations of organized women in their respective countries. The I.C.W. was formed at an initial meeting in Washington in 1888. Mrs. Millicent Garrett Fawcett was elected the Council's first President at that time. Lady Ishbel Aberdeen was elected President in 1893. The main objectives of the I.C.W. are to act as a means of communication and common action between women's organizations in all countries and to provide opportunities for women to meet and to discuss questions of common interest. The I.C.W. originally met every five years, when it transacted business and elected officers. It now meets every three years. The Executive is formed of 5 elected Officers, President, Vice-President, Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary and Treasurer; the Presidents of all affiliated National Councils; Conveners of Standing Committees; and Vice-Presidents appointed by the International Council for countries where no National Councils exist.

The I.C.W. papers were those in the possession of Lady Ishbel Aberdeen during her terms as President of the I.C.W., 1893-1899 and 1904-1936 and later as Honorary President. On Lady Aberdeen's death in 1939, the papers were bequeathed to the National Council of Women of Canada, who in turn donated the papers to the Public Archives of Canada in 1979.

Photographs, maps and printed material were transferred to the appropriate divisions.

Finding aid No. 1254 is a list of file titles and a list of correspondents for each file. Correspondents are listed only once for each file.

Notes on the Papers of the International Council of Women

Arrangement of the Papers

The papers of the International Council of Women (also called the Lady Aberdeen Papers by the Council) were prepared by the Archives Committee of the Council in 1963. At that time, the original order and titles of the papers were maintained. The material was stored in 7 cm boxes numbered Box 1 to Box 119. Boxes 3-8 and 9-15 were combined in two 7 cm boxes only. Therefore, the box numbers included in the finding aid are those that were used when the material was originally boxed. A copy of the list which reflects the box numbers follows these notes.

The material is now stored in 20cm boxes which are marked Volumes 1 to 47. The original order of the papers has remained intact.

Description of the Finding Aid

The International Council of Women papers are now in Volumes 1 to 47 and material has been placed in file folders numbered 1 to 704 consecutively. The finding aid (no. 1254) lists each file title and the inclusive dates of the material in each file. A list of correspondents for each file, where relevant, follows the file title. Correspondents who have signed letters, memoranda, etc. are listed in their order of appearance in each file. Each correspondent is listed only once despite the fact that the name may appear several times in the file.

Researchers should be cautioned on the spelling of correspondents' names. Wherever possible spellings have been standardized, although they may differ from time to time. Anglicized versions of names may also differ from the actual spellings of a particular nationality. Where a name could not be deciphered, the name was placed in square brackets.
