INTRODUCTION

BOWELL PAPERS (18 feet) 1869-1912

Sir Mackenzie Bowell (1823-1917) was born in Suffolk, England. He came to Canada in 1833 and became printer's apprentice in the office of the Belleville "Intelligencer" - a journal of which he ultimately became editor & proprietor. In 1857 he joined the militia; commanded a company in the Fenian raids and eventually obtained the rank of Lieutenant Colonel.

Bowell was the unsuccessful Conservative candidate for North Hastings at the general election of 1863, was elected in 1867 and continued to represent this county until appointed Senator in December 1892. He became Minister of Customs in 1878, Minister of Militia in January 1892, and Minister of Trade & Commerce in December 1892. As Minister of Trade & Commerce Bowell went to Australia in the fall of 1893 to develop trade between the two countries.

On the death of Sir John Thompson, Bowell became Prime Minister, 21 December 1894. Twelve months later, 4 January 1896, seven members of his cabinet resigned and a major readjustment took place. On 27 April Bowell resigned the premiership. After the Conservative defeat of 1896 he was elected leader of the Opposition in the Senate in 1906.

At an early age Bowell joined the Orange Order and he was for many years Grand Master of the Orange Association of British America.

The Bowell Papers came to the Archives in 1921 and were reorganized in February 1954. The papers fall into three main groups:
