LEMOINE, James MacPherson (1825-1912). Author and Barrister

Originals, n.d., 1833-1912, 1942. 35 cm. Finding Aid No. 1202.

James MacPherson LeMoine was born in Quebec City, the ninth child of Benjamin LeMoine and Julia Ann MacPherson. He was adopted by his grandfather, Daniel MacPherson, seigneur of Crane Island, when his father's exporting firm of Stewart and LeMoine suffered irreversible losses. Educated at the Séminaire de Québec, 1838-1845, he became a barrister in 1850. He was the first president of the Royal Society of Canada, five times president of the Literary and Historical Society of Quebec and a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Militia. J.M. LeMoine was the bearer of numerous diplomas from American historical societies and the author of many books and monographs.

The LeMoine papers were presented by his granddaughter, Miss Lily B. Rhodes, in 1972, 1974 and 1975 with the exception of six letters which were acquired in 1971 and twenty letters acquired in 1980.

Photographs, medals and drawings were transferred to the appropriate divisions.

The finding aid no. 1202 provides a descriptive list of the material.

Correspondence received by LeMoine, including letters from Francis Parkman, William Kirby, C.H. Farnham, Lord Aberdeen, Louis Fréchette, Ernest Gagnon, Sir Hector Langevin and Benjamin Sulte.
Correspondence sent by LeMoine to C.H. Collins, G. Fairchild and Sara Mickle.
