Cadieu, Albert C.. (1903-1990). Member of Parliament.
Spiritwood, Saskatchewan

Albert Cadieu fonds
Original, 1957-1966, 1971-1972, 0.560 m. Finding Aid No.
1997.

1994-05-17

Albert (Bert) Cadieu was born in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, on 28 June 1903 to John Jerome Cadieu and Annie Victoria Stephenson. He attended school at Shellbrook, Saskatchewan. On 26 November, 1932, he married Isabell Nesbitt. They later had three children, Kathleen, Leslie, and Grant. Cadieu became a rancher and contractor at Spiritwood, and president of A.C. Cadieu Construction Company.

In 1945, he was a candidate for the Progressive Conservative Party at the Federal General Election in North Battleford, Saskatchewan, but was defeated. He was elected to the House of Commons for Meadow Lake, Saskatchewan in 1958, 1962, 1963, 1965 and 1968. In 1972, he was defeated, but he was re-elected in 1974. He was a member of the House of Commons Working Committee on Indian Affairs. Other memberships included: A.F. and A.M. Shellbrooke Lodge No. 171; Canadian Hereford Association registered stock breeder; Spiritwood Agricultural Committee. Cadieu died in fall 1990.

Received on deposit in 1972 from the Parliamentary Office of Albert Cadieu, and donated by his estate in 1994.

Access is Restricted.

Maps, photographs and envelopes have been transferred to the Visual and Sound Archives.

Fonds consists primarily of correspondence and other materials organized into four series: 1) Meadow Lake constituency; 2) Provincial issues (Saskatchewan); 3) Federal government departments and national organizations; 4) Personal. Most files in the first series are arranged alphabetically by town or village. The next two series are organized by subject, and the "Personal" series consists of two files.

Meadow Lake Constituency correspondence. Original, 1962-1963, 0.080 m. (Vol. 1).

Series consists primarily of original letters from constituents and Cadieu's carbon copy replies, organized according to the constituents hometown or village. There are also two files on local election issues and results, and one on election promotional pens and matches. There is also a congratulations, thank you, deaths and births correspondence file.
