Louis Quilico was one of the world's great baritones and a long-time star of the Metropolitan Opera. He was best known as the hunchbacked jester Rigoletto, a part he played 510 times in his career. During his over 45 years on the world stage, Quilico shared performing credits with Luciano Pavarotti, Placido Domingo, José Carreras, Joan Sutherland, Renata Tebaldi and others. While the range and power of his voice made him an ideal interpreter of the great Italian and French composers, Quilico touched on a wide range of repertoire. He died suddenly at the age of 75 on July 15, 2000 in Toronto, Canada.

One of the next generation of Cape Breton fiddlers, Jennifer Roland offers an innovative and memorable performance. A skilful stepdancer to boot, Jennifer uses her steps as percussion to her own music and often choreographs dancers in her shows.
One of the next generation of Cape Breton fiddlers, Jennifer Roland offers an innovative and memorable performance. A skilful stepdancer to boot, Jennifer uses her steps as percussion to her own music and often choreographs dancers in her shows.
Long time friends, duo harpists Ardyth Robinson and Jennifer Wyatt have been delighting audiences with their distinctive mix of Celtic and original harp music since the fall of 1996.
Jason MacDonald is a young pop/folk singer-songwriter from Marion Bridge, Cape Breton. He performs in an acoustic setting, and his music is ideal for coffee houses, concert venues and club settings.

Notes
Dave Carmichael is one of Canada's most promising singer / songwriters. Known for evoking tears, silence, and uncontrollable laughter in his audiences, Carmichael is filled with the gift of music and wealth of imagination and creativity. He is a musician, a writer, an actor and an exceptional entertainer. His warm, playful, earthy nature captivates people and his energy both on and off the stage is contagious.
For the past few years, Nova Scotia singer/songwriter, Dave Gunning, has followed a performance schedule that averages over 200 nights a year, playing his own music and performing with the likes of Natalie MacMaster. His ability to compose powerful Maritime folk music and lyrics are evident in Dave's latest CD, Caught Between the Shadows. He has filmed a video for his first single off the album, "Here She Comes a Running."
Band members are Paul Drynkital, George Boy, Steve Stumble, Jeffrey Pyre
Bucket Truck is a 6-piece hard core rock band who hail from St. John's Newfoundland. The bongo player doubles as a backup vocalist. .

Notes
Originally from Montreal, Canada, Diana is a multiple award-winning performer/songwriter/voice actress. Her works have earned her gold, platinum, and grammy-winning albums recorded by such noted artists as Reba McEntire, Dolly Parton, Confederate Railroad, Kathie Lee Gifford & Aaron Neville, and Disney's The Little Mermaid. Many of you have awakened to the sound of Diana Rae's voice singing "The best part of waking up is Folger's in your cup!"
Country singer J.R. Vautour was raised in Fredericton, New Brunswick.
Moncton-based CHRIS COLEPAUGH AND THE COSMIC CREW have travelled across Canada and the United States bringing their home-grown music to the masses. A powerful and energetic performer, Chris Colepaugh plays with a strong desire and passion for his music. His complete command over the guitar is rivalled by few and is demonstrated nightly in the band's two to three hour sets. Every night songs change with impromptu jamming and re-arranging of parts. Backed by Lynn Daigle on bass and Luc Roy on drums, the "Crew" give Colepaugh a solid platform to testify from. Heavy bass riffs and free flowing polyrhythms keep the music going until it just can't stop. The "Crew's" extensive touring of Canada, New England, Washington, Oregon, and California has garnered them serious attention from fans and industry-folk alike. The Critics agree on one thing - see this band live.

Jeff Morris has been singing and playing guitar since the age of 9, and was performing live and wrote his first song by the age of 13. Since then, this Prince Edward Islander has toured with two of Atlantic Canada's biggest bands, "Taquila" and "Counting Zero." Drawing on musical elements from different eras, Jeff creates songs with a unique pop sensibility and fresh lyrical hooks. He expects to form his own record label, distribute his CD and shoot a video for his first single in the near future.
From Cape Breton to Tokyo, Dallas to Denmark, Edinburgh to Australia, Kendra MacGillivray has played them all. She is one of Nova Scotia's busiest performers having danced her way into the hearts of audiences worldwide with her Cape Breton style fiddling and step dancing. Kendra has just released a new album called "Over The Waves" which is a mix of traditional and contemporary styles.
Born in Wolfville, and raised in the Musquodoboit Valley, John 'Spyder' Macdonald is a talented entertainer who has been pleasing audiences for more than two decades with his rich and distinctive vocals. His easy-going stage presence and sense of humor have gained him many friends and followers. His career has been spent performing in the Maritimes, Montreal, Toronto and Ottawa.

Hailing from Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, The Rude Mechanicals are a rock band intent on making original music and having a great time doing it. Dennis Ellsworth, Peter Forbes, Todd MacLean, Matthew McQuaid, and Mike Mella, united by a love of good song-writing, took their name from the Shakespeare production in which three of them met. Since that time they have gained a loyal, cult following throughout Atlantic Canada.

With a firm grasp of traditional songs and sounds, Fortune's Hand has become one of the hottest young bands around. The band was originally formed in 1995 by lead singer Mark d'Entremont, bass player Lee Cluett and guitarist Donald Landes. Rob Mattatall Joined in 1996 as the band's drummer and in 1999, their quest for a fiddle player ended when they landed Kevin Bohaychuk. The combined talents of the band's members has enabled Fortune's Hand to grow into the traditional sound they have today.

6-man band is based in Moncton, New Brunswick.

Harry Martin was born and raised in Cartwright, Labrador. Harry is fourth generation Labradorian and a member of the Labrador's Metis community, whose ancestors were a mixture of European settlers and aboriginal people. Harry became interested in music at the age of thirteen when his sister brought home an old guitar and showed him how to play three cords. He was soon fascinated by the fingerstyle playing he saw the American servicemen use at the American Military Base in Cartwright in the 1950s and 1960. Harry's musical influences included Gordon Lightfoot, Ian and Sylvia Tyson, Peter Paul and Mary, as well as other performers who were part of the so-called "folk revival". Harry began to develop his own writing skills and in time was including his own compositions on stage, much to the delight and enjoyment of his audience. His music and unique style of presentation have resulted in a loyal and appreciative following.
A musical ensemble featuring Mary Lawlis, actor; Catherine Maguire, piano; Nancy Hennen, flute; Brenda Muller, artistic director and cello.
Ten to Nine is a vibrant five-piece band from British Columbia. Features Pat Brown, vocals, lead and rhythm guitar; Katrina Lawrence, vocals and acoustic guitar; Randall Robinson, vocals and guitars; Tony Gauthier, bass; Scott Gamble, drums.

Notes
Lee Aaron is beyond a shadow of a doubt Canada's reigning woman-rocker. Beginning her career when few women were being taken seriously here, she was truly a role-model and influence to any Canadian women today who hold a microphone. To have survived this long in a predominantly male business is a testament to her fortitude. Metal ... pop ... or jazz ... she can do it all ... and very well. The last few years have seen Lee Aaron return to her roots. Always an avid jazz fan, she has been wooing audiences with her 'second love' and have not only given her die-hard fans something new to rave about, she's picked up a few new ones as well.
Sue Medley was born in Courtenay BC in 1962. Her profile received a boost after four of her songs were featured on the hit TV series "Dawson's Creek".
The Original Sloth Band was Ken & Chris Whiteley and Tom Evans - a group formed in their teens featuring blues, swing and a multiplicity of roots styles. Three albums were recorded and they also appeared on Saturday Night Live, backing Leon Redbone. Unfortunately none of their LPs have yet been reissued on CD. Both Ken and Chris are very active musicians performing in various combinations. Tom Evans is now an optometrist.

Loreena McKennitt was born and raised in the small prairie community of Morden, Manitoba. Self-managed, self-produced and the head of her own record label, as an award-winning "eclectic Celtic" singer/songwriter Loreena McKennitt has sold nearly ten million records worldwide. Her recording history, which now spans a decade and a half, includes six full-length studio albums and a two-album live recording.

Notes
Born in Paisley, Scotland, in 1948, Murray McLauchlan was brought to Canada at age five. He began performing folk music in Toronto's Yorkville coffeehouses at seventeen and made his first appearance at the Mariposa Folk Festival in 1966. Musically his styles have ranged from folk to country to rock and, most recently, back to country. The durable McLauchlan has won nearly every Juno award Canada has to offer to folk/country performers. In 1973 McLauchlan won Juno awards for "Best Folk Single," "Best Country Single," and "Composer of the Year." He has won at least six Junos as "Country Male Vocalist," between 1976 and 1986. His instantly recognizable voice is embedded inextricably into the memory of folk music fans who listened their way through the 1970's. During the 80's and early 90's McLauchlan became a radio host for the CBC, first with his Timberline series and then with Swingin' on a Star. Unfortunately most of his solo albums from the 70's are out of print and have not yet been reissued as compact discs.
Also known as the Fisherman Songwriter.

Notes
The band is a fusion of hard, in your face rock and melodic classical form - a sound that makes them hard to define. Lead songwriter Colin MacDonald plays around with many rock 'n' roll cliches, giving the genre an interesting twist. The band consist of brothers Colin MacDonald, 21 (lead vocals, rhythm guitar) and John-Angus MacDonald, 19(lead guitar, vocals) along with Jack Syperek, 19(bass guitar, vocals) and Ramsey Clark, 19(drums, vocals). The four friends joined musical forces and in the summer of 1997. Since then, they have been very successful in drawing large crowds all over Maritimes.

Born in Labrador City to academic parents (her mother is a teacher, her dad a university professor), Damhnait moved to St. John's, Newfoundland, as a child where she studied classical voice, sang in a choir and was very involved in acting. In 1996, she released her first album Shadows Wake Me, on Latitude Records. The disc earned her a multi-format-hit song with "A List of Things", a Juno nomination for Best New Solo Artist and five East Coast Music Award nominations.

The band's early success and achievement were recognized by the Royal Canadian Legion, Regina Branch No. 001. The Legion proposed an affiliation with the band in November 1993, and since January 1994 the City of Regina Pipe Band has been the official pipe band of the Regina Branch, RCL. Over the years, the band has organized an indoor contest, mini gatherings for amateur pipers and drummers, a professional knockout event, an annual Celtic Festival, and many other events.

This Hendrix-influenced power trio from Montreal comprised guitarist Frank Marino, bassist Paul Harwood and drummer Jim Ayoub. The band released albums throughout the '70s, including Maxoom (1972), Child of the Novelty (1974), Strange Universe (1975), Mahogany Rush IV (1976), World Anthem (1977), Live (1978) and Tales of the Unexpected (1979). The band became known as Frank Marino and Mahogany Rush after 1980's What's Next, then simply Frank Marino after Jim Ayoub left.
With a powerful combination of vocal finesse, quirky phrasing, memorable lyrics and infectious melodies, Blaise has continually impressed audiences since arriving on the Canadian music scene. Topping almost 4,000 entries in the 6th annual Standard Radio National Songwriting Competition, along with her second place showing in the first annual John Lennon Songwriting Competition out of 34,000 international entrants established Blaise as a talent worthy of attention.

Morse Robb was an inventor and designer born in Belleville, Ontario in 1902. He was the first inventor anywhere to succeed in developing an electronic organ. His system involved 12 shafts, each representing one note of the scale. The tone quality was determined by rotating discs. Unlike the Hammond organ with its timbres built out of individual sine waves, the Robb Wave Organ had, mounted on the shafts, a series of sets of discs, each set representing one stop on the organ. The discs were ground by hand to produce a variety of timbres.

Louis Quilico was one of the world's great baritones and a long-time star of the Metropolitan Opera. He was best known as the hunchbacked jester Rigoletto, a part he played 510 times in his career. During his over 45 years on the world stage, Quilico shared performing credits with Luciano Pavarotti, Placido Domingo, José Carreras, Joan Sutherland, Renata Tebaldi and others. While the range and power of his voice made him an ideal interpreter of the great Italian and French composers, Quilico touched on a wide range of repertoire. He died suddenly at the age of 75 on July 15, 2000 in Toronto, Canada.

This organ was built by Richard Coates in 1820 for The Children of Peace. It is 8.5 feet high, 4.5 feet wide and 2.5 feet deep; it is fully chromatic with more than 100 wooden pipes in 4 ranks (8 inch, 4', 4', 2'), a compass of 37 notes, and 133 wooden flue pipes. Coates prepared two barrels with 10 tunes on each. It is the first organ that was build in Ontario and is the oldest organ preserved in Canada. With its barrels it also provides the first piece of recorded music in Canada.

Notes
The Children of Peace built this temple between 1825 and 1831 as the Temple of Peace. It was not used for regular meetings or worship but only to collect alms for the poor once a month. As part of their fall feast, the "Feast of the First Fruits", the Children of Peace illuminated the temple with candlelight symbolizing the light of the gospel shining out to a sinning world on every first Friday evening in September. The Children of Peace disbanded in 1889 and the Temple was abandoned until the York Pioneer & Historical Society bought it in 1917. Today the temple serves as the centrepiece of the Sharon Temple Historic Site and Museum
In 1820 the Children of Peace formed a brass band, later on stringed instruments were added. It was initially formed and led by Richard Coates and was one of the earliest, if not the first, civilian band in Canada. The band performed in the meetinghouses and the Temple of the Children of Peace and also in processions. After purchasing silver instruments in 1860 the band became known as the Sharon Silver band.
