Personal and Confidential Series 1859-1979 (inclusive) 1957-1963
(predominant) textual records]

15.8 m 126 vols.

This series is organized in six subseries: A/ File Room Safe Files, B/ Marion Wagner Files, C/ Marjorie Pound Files, D/ Beatrice Eligh Files (Office Vault - Part 1), E/ Office Vault - Part 2 Files, F/ Miscellaneous Files. Within each of these the arrangement is alphabetical. While file titles have been slightly rationalized within the subseries, no effort was made to ensure that subject files in one section were assigned identical or even similar titles in another. For researchers, this approach means that while they will benefit from the evidential information afforded by documents in original order, they can also expect to encounter numerous anomalies and inconsistencies when consulting the series in its entirety. The description of the various subseries (see RSN's 9157, 9158, 9159, 9160, 9161, 9162) and their provenance will help to account for the differences evident between them. The subseries themselves are roughly in chronological order.

This series consists primarily of those files deemed too sensitive for processing in John Diefenbaker's usual office filing system due to political, personal or security considerations. VIP letters and other documents which Diefenbaker particularly valued are also included. Interfiled with both categories of material is a body of more mundane documents which Diefenbaker and his staff wanted close at hand for a variety of reasons. While the series contains files dating from 1957 through to 1979, the last year of Diefenbaker's life, it is largely comprised of material created during the 1957-1967 period, especially the years from 1957 to 1963 when Diefenbaker served as Canada's thirteenth prime minister. For the most part, Diefenbaker's VIP and personal correspondence is found in the 1967-1979 Member of Parliament Series (Diefenbaker Centre: MG 01/XI, National Archives: MG 26 M XI). For a discussion of Diefenbaker's career during the 1957-1967 period, consult the finding aids for the PMO (series VI and VIII) and the OLO (series IX).

Without question, the Personal and Confidential series is one of the most important sources available for the study of the Rt. Hon. John G. Diefenbaker's career, particularly his years as prime minister. By its very nature, the series contains some of the most sensitive and significant documents concerning government policy as it related to defence, Canada-US relations, the Commonwealth, and other key issues of the 1957-1963 period. Researchers utilizing the Personal and Confidential Series will also find important material pertaining to the 1957-1979 period in six other Diefenbaker series: VI PMO Series - Numbered Correspondence; VII Reference Series 1957-1967; VIII PMO Series - Unnumbered Correspondence; IX Second Leader of the Opposition 1963-1967 Series; X Office Administration; and XI Member of Parliament 1967-1979 Series.

(predominant) [textual records]

3.5 m, 28 vols.

This subseries can be seen, in part, as an extension of the PMO Series: Numbered Files (Diefenbaker Centre: MG 01/VI, National Archives: MG 26 M VI). Like the latter, the File Room Safe Files were organized by Diefenbaker's file room staff under the direction of Gordon Hetherington. Unlike the Numbered Files, though, the File Room Safe material was mostly unnumbered. As a result, those files that were numbered have been retitled and integrated into the larger subseries. The file numbers of such titles have, however, been retained and are noted in brackets after the title. These numbers will permit researchers to determine the original title by consulting the PMO Series: Numbered Files finding aid (see RSN 2248). It should also be noted that some of the numbered files were actually removed from the PMO Series and are at least partially indexed in the PMO Series card index. In the File Room Safe Files subseries Diefenbaker's correspondence is largely found in two sections: Diefenbaker, Rt. Hon. John G. - Correspondence, and Diefenbaker, Rt. Hon. John G. - Correspondence (V.I.P.).

Among the most important sections of this subseries are: Diefenbaker, Rt. Hon. John G. - Correspondence (especially Diefenbaker, Rt. Hon. John G. - Correspondence - Returned from PCO); Diefenbaker, Rt. Hon. John G. - Correspondence (VIP); Judgeships; and Prince Albert - Contracts and Appointments.

Marion Wagner Files Subseries 1926-1965 (inclusive) 1957-1963
(predominant) [textual records]

1.8 m, 15 vols.

This body of files was maintained by Diefenbaker's senior personal secretary, Marion Wagner. Unlike subseries XII/A File Room Safe Files, the Wagner files were kept separate from the PMO Series: Numbered Files. Although Wagner served with Diefenbaker from 1957 to 1967, this subseries dates primarily from the PMO period. It seems likely that Wagner's post-PMO files were later integrated into other Personal and Confidential subseries. In terms of original order, the files were disorganized and required some rearrangement; however, for the most part original titles were retained.

Of particular interest in this subseries are the political files to be found under Elections and Progressive Conservative Party. This subseries also includes a fair amount of Diefenbaker's finance material which is filed under Diefenbaker, Rt. Hon. John G.

Marjorie Pound Files Subseries 1917-1969 (inclusive) 1957-1967
(predominant) [textual records]

4.2 m, 34 vols.

Unlike the Wagner files, this subseries was extremely well arranged in four alphabetical runs for the years 1960-1963. These were combined in one large run to which was added a small body of miscellaneous Pound files that served to extend the dates of the subseries from 1957 to 1969.

The single largest subseries of the Personal and Confidential Series, the Marjorie Pound Files were maintained by Diefenbaker's second personal secretary, Marjorie "Bunny" Pound. The Pound files also contain a small group of files which Diefenbaker acquired from the office of his confidant and personal advisor, Senator William Brunt, following the Senator's death in 1962. These are organized under Brunt's name. Among the most important sections of this subseries are the Progressive Conservative Party files, Cabinet Notes, and the Commonwealth Conference files. The Pound files also contain some constituency material; however, the bulk of Pound's constituency files are found in XII/A/ File Room Safe Files Subseries. Like the Wagner files, the Pound files include a portion of Diefenbaker's financial records. In this subseries such material will be found primarily under Accounts.

Beatrice Eligh Files (Office Vault - Part 1) Subseries 1859-1979
(inclusive) 1957-1979 (predominant) [textual records]

1.4m, 11 vols.

This subseries is arranged alphabetically and chronologically.

This small body of Personal and Confidential material was located in Diefenbaker's office during his last years as an MP; however, many of the files actually date from the 1957 to 1967 period and likely came originally from the Wagner and Pound subseries. The last person responsible for the material was Beatrice Eligh who joined Diefenbaker's staff in 1970. Mrs. Eligh apparently added a small number of files pertaining to both Diefenbaker's finances and his estate. It is likely that some material also came from Eligh's immediate predecessor, Iris Axford. Among the more important files in this subseries are those devoted to Berlin, the Common Market, Igor Gouzenko, the Kennedy Memo, and the Munsinger Affair.

Office Vault Part 2 Subseries 1956-1972 [textual records]

.8m, 7 vols.

Much of the material in this subseries is organized in nominal files in alphabetical and chronological order.

Like the first part of the Office Vault (XII/D the Eligh Files, RSN 9160), the Office Vault Part 2 was being utilized in Diefenbaker's office during his final years as an MP. However, as was the case with the Eligh material, most of the files actually date from Diefenbaker's years as prime minister and leader of the opposition. This subseries includes a substantial amount of material on the Munsinger scandal and the Progressive Conservative Party. Also of particular interest are those files documenting Diefenbaker's Quebec connections (see Morin, Gerald; Lafontaine, Paul; and Johnson, Daniel) and his relations with the press (see Bassett, John; Dalgleish, Oakley; and Nicholson, Pat).

(predominant) [textual records]

3.7m, 30 vols.

This subseries is arranged alphabetically and chronologically. Material in this subseries dates mostly from 1957 to 1967. Unlike the other Personal and Confidential subseries which formed discreet, even if poorly organized units, the Miscellaneous Files came from a variety of sources and were not the responsibility of one particular assistant or secretary. As is the case with other Personal and Confidential subseries, there is a large proportion of nominal files containing both correspondence with, and material about, individuals. This subseries includes important runs of material pertaining to four subjects in particular: Prime Ministers' Conferences, Defence, Elections, and the Progressive Conservative Party.
