

George Mully Collection: graphic material: 35 mm colour slides (r/e 2004-0817)

This donation of 35 mm colour slides of documentary images from George Mully's (1926-1999) collection for both personal and professional use spans the later career years of this Ottawa filmmaker. Subjects include images of the National Storytellers, Canada's Treasury Board, and acid rain (in relation to his 1981 film "Acid From Heaven" produced for the National Film Board of Canada); views of Canada's Inuit and First Nations as well as Navajo and Apache peoples living in the United States of America; visual still record of international development of Asia, Latin America and, especially, Africa, including subjects related to public health, welfare, education, transportation and clean water supply. Other subjects include animals, science and miscellaneous stock images relevant to Mully's career. Some of the material is dated and covers time period from c.1978 to 1988.

This collection includes 3645 colour slides, some of which are identified as taken by the following photographers working for a number of international aid organizations including the Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA). They are (not in particular order):

G. Mully, E. Tolmi, B. Hulls, D. Barbour, C. McNeil, B. Paton, D. Curran, A. Peacock, D. Mehta, J. White, P. Baeza, P. Chiasson, R. Hughes, K. Dombi, R. Carlisle, J. Williamson, P. Morrow, J. Durant, T. Stephens, G. Chapman, V. Jensen, B. Cox, K. Mills, R. West, J. Flanders, C. Saggero, W. Wyett, Kashmire Photo.

Various corners of the world are depicted throughout this visual material including Africa, Asia and all of Americas. Destinations in Africa include locations and sites in/around Mombasa, Nairobi, Nakuru and Kisumu in Kenya, Cape Town in South Africa, Lesotho, Egypt, Sudan, Botswana, Tanzania, Zambia, Senegal, Nigeria, Chad and Zimbabwe among others. Countries and regions covered in Asia include India, Pakistan, China, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, Indonesia, Thailand and, to greater extent, Philippines that provides visual record of people in/around Manila, Boracay, Baguio, Tagudin, Pudoc, Libtong and San Emilio. Central and South American regions are described by countries of Colombia, Jamaica, Costa Rica, Bolivia, Guatemala, Peru, Jamaica, Haiti, Nicaragua and Chile among others.

The images of Inuit and First Nation peoples in Canada presented by this collection cover various geographical areas and subjects including education, business and growth opportunities; religion and traditional/contemporary lifestyle (hunting, fishing, craft making, canoe and kayak building); human rights issues; air transportation and reserves.

The finding aid attached to this summary provides subjects and their brief descriptions and extents in order they are organized in the archival storage containers no. 2001205771 and no. 2001205772.
