Donald Grant Creighton, the son of Rev. William Black Creighton, editor of the Methodist Christian Guardian, and Laura Harvie, was born in 1902 at Toronto, Ont. He was educated at the University of Toronto and Balliol College, Oxford. He taught history at the University of Toronto from 1927 to 1970 serving as Chairman of the Department from 1955 to 1959. He was appointed Sir John A. Macdonald Professor of History in 1965. In 1960 he served as a member of the Advisory Commission on the Review of the Constitution of the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland. He was appointed a member of the Ontario Advisory Committee on Confederation in 1965, Donald Creighton was especially known for his outstanding works on Canadian history which were noted for their attention to detail and his readable prose style. Some of his best known historical works include, The Commercial Empire of the St. Lawrence, 1760-1850, published in 1937 and reprinted in 1956 as the Empire of St. Lawrence, British North America at Confederation, 1940, Dominion of the North: A History of Canada, 1944, John A. Macdonald: The Young Politician, 1952, John A. Macdonald: The Old Chieftain, 1955, Canada's First Century, 1970, and the Forked Road: Canada 1939-1957, 1976. In 1978 he published his only novel Takeover. He received numerous awards for his works including honorary degrees from most Canadian universities and from Oxford. He also received the Tyrrell Medal for History in 1951 from the Royal Society of Canada, the Governor-General's Award for Academic Non-Fiction in 1952 and again in 1955 and the Molson Prize from the Canada Council in 1964. Creighton was made a Companion of the Order of Canada in 1967. See also: The Canadian Encyclopedia, 1985, and Encyclopedia Canadiana.

Received in 1977 from D.G. Creighton; in 1980 from Philip Creighton, trustee of the D.G. Creighton Estate; in 1983 from Philip Creighton and Mrs. Luella Creighton; and in 1996 from Philip Creighton, trustee of the Luella Creighton estate.

Access is Restricted.

The finding aid is a file list which briefly describes the contents of the files.

Photographs, maps, publications, and medals were transferred to the appropriate divisions.

The papers of Professor Creighton concern his teaching career, his publications, and his involvement in a number of organizations, as well as, the Monckton Advisory Commission on the Review of the Constitution of the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland, 1957-1963 and include correspondence, memoranda, minutes of meetings, manuscripts, notes, speeches, research papers, clippings, diaries, reports, course outlines, roll books for the students in Dr. Creighton's classes, correspondence with Eugene Forsey, 1939-1975, and publications.

A two page chart on the Royal Commission on Bilingualism and Biculturalism, 1966, is available in the vertical file cabinets.

Correspondence and memoranda. Original, 1927-1979, 2.600 m. (Vol. 1-9, 27-30).

Arranged in three alphabetical series, reflecting the original arrangement of the papers. The first series largely concerns his students, publications and early career. The second series is more concerned with associations. The third series although it dates back to 1941, is the only one to continue to 1979. Many of the files in the third series relate to awards and honours and such matters as his CBC appearances.

Original, 1947-1958, 0.200 m. (Vol. 10).

Including correspondence, memoranda and minutes of meetings.

Manuscripts, notes and related papers. Original, 1924-1979, 5.300 m. (Vol. 11-21, 32-35, 49-64). Photocopy, n.d., 1770-1928, 0.800 m. (Vol. 11-21, 32-35, 49-64).

Manuscripts for Creighton's articles, speeches and books such as the Commercial Empire of the St.

Lawrence, Dominion of the North, Sir John A. Macdonald: the young politician and Sir John A. Macdonald: the old chieftain, Canada's First Century and The Forked Road: Canada 1939-1957 and Takeover, manuscripts are book reviews, photocopies and notes, and a large series of note cards dated 1820 to 1895 which were used to arranged source material for his books. (The originals of most of the photocopies are in the National Archives of Canada or the Public Record Office in London, England.)
