FALUDI, Eugenio Giacomo (1896-1981). Architect and Town Planner.

Originals, 1927-1981. 3.4 m. Finding Aid No. 1276.

E.G. Faludi (1896-1981) was born in Budapest, grew up in Italy and received his doctorate in Architecture from the University of Rome in 1929. After practising as architect and town planner in Italy, he moved in 1939 to England and in 1940 to Canada, where he was guest lecturer in Town Planning at McGill and the University of Toronto, 1940-1942. He became consulting planner and member of the Technical Committee of the Toronto City Planning Board, and was in charge of preparation of the first master plan for the Toronto metropolitan area, 1942-43. In 1944 he established Town Planning Consultant Limited (name changed to E.G. Faludi and Associates Limited, 1971), and was responsible for the preparation of planning studies for many municipalities and private firms, primarily in metropolitan Toronto and other parts of Ontario, until his retirement in 1977. He published many articles and papers on town planning.

Faludi was President of the Town Planning Institute of Canada, 1954-1955, and member of a committee which reactivated that organization in 1952.

Presented in 1981 by Mrs. E.G. Faludi of Toronto.

Photographs of Faludi's Italian architecture and of plans for Canadian development projects were transferred to the National Photography Collection. Plans of development projects in Canada and Brazil were transferred to the National Map Collection. A film on Thorncrest Village was transferred to the National Film and Sound Archives.

The finding aid No. 1276 is a file list.
