BUDDEN, William Hanbury (1908-1979). Businessman and Public Servant.

Originals, 1835-1978. 1.2 m. Finding Aid No. 1189.

Born in Montreal, William Budden was educated at Lower Canada College and McGill University. He served on the staff of the Sun Life Assurance Company, first as a member of the Investment Department and later as Special Assistant to the President. From 1934-1945, he worked for the Bank of Canada, and was Secretary of the War Finance Committee for part of that period. After a brief period with the Tuckett Tobacco Company Limited, in Hamilton, as Assistant to the President, Mr. Budden became a partner in a Montreal Investment Counselling business, McLean, Budden Limited, 1949-1965. Mr. Budden participated in the activities of many voluntary associations, including the Canadian Institute of International Affairs and the Canadian Centenary Council.

Presented in 1979 by Mr. Arthur Budden of Ottawa.
