BIOGRAPHICAL DESCRIPTION OF L.M. BECKER

Lavy M. Becker was born in Montreal in 1905, the son of the Reverend Barnet and Jennie Becker. He received his B.A. from McGill in 1926, his M.H.L. from the Jewish Theological Seminary of America in 1930, and his M.A. from Columbia in 1935. He served as a Rabbi and as a social worker in New York, Detroit, New Haven and Boston from 1930 to 1947. During World War II he was as director of the United Service Organization - Jewish Welfare Board program for servicemen in New England. From 1945 to 1946 he was Director of the Joint Distribution Committee in the American Zone of occupied Germany.

In 1962 Rabbi Becker was one of the founders and the first Rabbi of the Reconstructionist Synagogue of Montreal and has subsequently served in various capacities on behalf of the Reconstructionist Movement a modern development in Judaism.

He was Chairman of the Centennial Interfaith Conference and has served as a director of the Vanier Institute of the family as well as serving the Canadian Jewish Congress and the World Jewish Congress in an executive capacity. To honour his many activities and contributions the Jewish Community Federation of Greater Montreal established the Lavy M. Becker chair at the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College, Philadelphia.

In conjunction with his activities with the Jewish Welfare Board, the United Service Organization, the World Jewish Congress and the Reconstructionist movement, Lavy Becker has travelled extensively in South America and the Caribbean. These trips are documented by his many reports and extensive correspondence with individuals in these areas.
