MG 30 D 100 SCOTT, Duncan Campbell (1862-1947). Author.

Originals, 1912, 1923. 3 pages. Microfilm, 1862-1947. Reels_M-5473 and M-5474. Finding Aid No. 1098.

Born in Ottawa, where he lived most his life, Duncan Campbell Scott was educated in Smith's Falls, Ont. and Stanstead, Que. He began a career with the Department of Indian Affairs as a clerk in 1879 becoming Deputy Superintendent General 1913-1932. Scott published several collections of poetry and two collections of short stories, as well as writing a novel which was published posthumously. He contributed poems and prose to numerous periodicals and anthologies, and wrote a play that was produced at Hart House 1927. He collaborated with Archibald Lampman and W.W. Campbell in the Toronto Globe's literary series "At the Mermaid Inn" 1892-1893. He collaborated with E.K. Brown on a posthumous collection of Lampman's unpublished poems and prepared introductions to other collections. Scott was, at various times, a governor of the Dominion Drama Festival and the Canadian Writers' Foundation, a fellow of the Royal Society of Literature of Great Britain, and president of the Canadian Authors' Association, the Ottawa Drama League, and the Royal Society of Canada.

The finding aid no. 1098 provides a list of the nominal and subject files and indicates their contents. Researchers should note that the order of files on microfilm differs slightly from the photocopies.

Correspondence, 1912, 1923. Originals, 3 pages (vol. 1).
Letter from Sir John Willison to the poet Duncan Campbell Scott (1862-1947) dated 13 December 1923. Presented in 1969 by Carleton University Library through Professor Richard Clippingdale.

Letter dated 17 June 1912 from the ninth Duke of Argyll thanking Duncan Campbell Scott for pictures of the members of the Royal Society of Canada. Acquired in 1973.

Nominal and Subject Files, 1862-1947. Microfilm, Reels M-5473 and M-5474.

Included are files relating to Scott's writing, containing correspondence, manuscripts and clippings. Also included are files relating to other Canadian authors, poets and artists, containing correspondence, manuscripts and clippings. Also included are files relating to English poets, containing correspondence and clippings. Also included are files relating to Scott's daughter Elizabeth and her death, and to his own death, containing correspondence and clippings. Microfilmed in 1980 from originals owned by Mr. and Mrs. John G. Aylen of Ottawa. Also available in photocopy form (vols. 2-3).
