WHYTE-EDGAR, Mrs. C.M. (1869-1948). Anthologist.

Originals, 1871-1930. 10 cm. F.A. No. 1117.

Mrs. C.M. Whyte-Edgar of Lancaster, Ontario compiled an anthology of Canadian poetry entitled A Wreath of Canadian Song, which included biographical sketches of the poets as well as poems by various deceased poets. It was published by Briggs in Toronto, 1910.

Acquired in 1979.

The Finding Aid No. 1117 is a list of the correspondents.

The collection largely comprises correspondence, 1908-1914, received by Mrs. Whyte-Edgar from various literary figures on the subject of her anthology.

Also included are letters, 1902-1930, addressed to Albert Britnell regarding the buying and selling of books from miscellaneous literary figures.

Included, as well, are miscellaneous letters, 1871-1917, addressed to or written by well-known literary, artistic or political figures.

All the correspondence has been arranged alphabetically according to the letters' authors. A one page note by Mrs. Whyte-Edgar has been placed at the end of the volume.
