LEGG, Herbert (b. 1891). Collector of Customs.

Originals, 1913-1970. 70 cm. Photographs, 1898, 1901. 8 pages. Finding Aid No. 858.

Herbert Legg entered the Canadian Custom's Department as a stenographer in 1913 and retired in 1956 with the position as Collector of Customs for Calgary. From 1924 to 1949, while he held the position of District Inspector of Customs at Calgary, he supervised all the customs officers in the prairie provinces, eastern British Columbia and the Yukon. He published the book Customs Services in Western Canada 1867-1925 in 1962.

Presented in 1973 by Herbert Legg of Creston B.C. Photographs, publications and maps were transferred to the responsible divisions. Photographs of several documents were returned to the Papers by the National Photography Collection in 1983.

Finding Aid No. 858 is a file list.

The papers consist of files arranged alphabetically by place name containing correspondence, notes, clippings and leaflets assembled in writing his book. The files give the origin of the place name, history of the settlement, date of the establishment of the customs services and the persons holding office up to 1925.

The photographs consist of copies of a writ of assistance for Customs Officer William Cox Allen, 21 December 1898, and a "Let Pass" for Colin Sinclair to bring settlers effects past Fort Steele, 25 March 1901. The originals are in the Glenbow-Alberta Institute.
