UKRAINIAN NATIONAL YOUTH FEDERATION COLLECTION

Introduction

The Ukrainian National Youth Federation of Canada (UNYF) - a national association of Canadian youth of Ukrainian ancestry was established at the National Convention of the Ukrainian National Federation of Canada held in Saskatoon in 1934. The UNYF is a self-governing organization affiliated with the Ukrainian National Federation of Canada which was incorporated by federal statute on 1 June 1950. A non-profit, non-sectarian organization, the UNYF is based on humanitarian principles. It strives to organize young Canadians of Ukrainian ancestry and to educate them to be conscious of their Ukrainian heritage and their role and contribution to Canadian society. It promotes the research and dissemination of Ukrainian culture, and seeks to involve its members in developing and contributing the Ukrainian-Canadian culture to a multicultural Canada. It actively espouses the cause of self-determination of all nations, particularly of Ukraine, as set forth in the Charter of the United Nations. The UNYF supports the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and opposes ideologies which lead to the destruction of freedom of the individual.

In 1961 the Ukrainian name was amended from Molodi Ukrayinski Natsionalisty (literally: Young Ukrainian Nationalists) to Molod Ukrayinskoho Natsionalnoho Obyednannya (Ukrainian National Youth Federation) to conform to the English name - UNYF - which had been employed since the organization's inception. The UNYF has branches in most of Canada's provinces. The National office has been located in Saskatoon, Winnipeg and Toronto. The majority of records are in Ukrainian; however, after 1956, English came into more frequent use.

The collection was presented by the National Executive of the UNYF in 1972. The Sudbury Branch presented its records in 1973. The papers have been arranged in series, one for each of the organizational entities whose papers are included in the collection. The Table of Contents gives an overview of the arrangement of the collection and the types of records within each series.

This finding aid is a file list. The researcher should bear in mind that while this collection contains files on various subjects, he should also consult other files (e.g. minutes, reports and financial files, correspondence and resource material files) for further documentation on any topic. A detailed listing of photographs in the custody of the Picture Division is not available at this time.
