

6 April 1946

Speech by George DREW, Prime Minister of Ontario, before the Ontario Sugar Beet Producers Association,
in Chatham,

The post-war world and its problems; the importance of agricultural production to keep world peace and prevent famine in Europe and Asia.

Recorded by CFCO, Chatham. Broadcast by CBC.
D 1980-44/1.

195?

Part of Speech by George DREW, leader of the Progressive Conservative Party.

His recent visit to Germany; the differences between East and West Germany; communism.

Recorded by radio station CFRA, Ottawa. D 1980-44/2