For access apply to: - Pour consultation communiquez avec:

Category "A": For access, researchers must obtain the union's written authorization and sign an "Application for Access" (with a specific regulation, available in Canadian Archives Branch Restricted Access File) at the National Archives.

Category "B": These volumes contain closed and restricted files.

For access to restricted files in these volumes: see Category "A" above. An archivist will remove the closed files and prepare an interim volume in order to circulate these restricted files to researchers with appropriate permission.

Closed files: See attached list, "Closed Files in Mixed Closed/Restricted Volumes." Unless otherwise noted, these files are closed until they reach 25 years in age; once 25 years old, they become restricted per Category "A" above.

For written permission, write to:

National Automobile, Aerospace, Transportation and General Workers Union of Canada (CAW-Canada)
Attention: Kathy Bennett, Library
205 Placer Court
North York, Ontario
