Summary of the negotiations – Sommaire des négociations

Andrew Elliott, Archivist, Private Archives Branch at Library and Archives Canada
Angela Digout Erhardt and Liliane Benoit, representing the former Canadian Toy Testing Council

As per negotiations in 2016 between LAC archivist and representatives of the former Canadian Toy Testing Council, it was agreed upon that: mainly due to sensitive information relating to individuals who were toy evaluators in the late 1990s and early 2000s, the records relating to these individuals should have restricted access. Restricted access means that researchers must apply to LAC archivist in Science, Environment and Economic Affairs Section of Private Archives Branch, and researchers must abide by current access to information and privacy laws.
