47814 - PRAIRIE TRAINED CHINESE HOPE FOR CRACK AT JAPS - This young Chinese soldier in the Cdn Army, one of an entire unit of Cdn-born Chinese, is the guest of his fellow countrymen at a cafe at Maple Creek, Sask., where he completed his basic trg. He is Pte. Chiud of New Westminster, B.C.

STORY In a military barracks in the heart of Canada's capital, a newly arrived unit of Cdn trps have bedded down "waiting orders" to proceed to a theatre of war - and they hope it means a crack at the Japs - for they are Cdn-born Chinese trps recruited and trained in the Cdn West. They are anxious, keen, well-trained, fighting fit, and every one a volunteer. They have personal reasons for going to war - especially against the Japs - many have lost loved ones since their home country went to war against Japan back in 1937, several have had relatives tortured and killed, and they'd like nothing better than to be sent to the Pacific, but no matter where they go, these Canadian born Chinese volunteers are out to add another glorious chapter to the history of Cdn arms. These pix were taken by a Cdn Army photographer while the Chinese unit was in trg.

47815 - A coy of Cdn-born Chinese soldiers, all volunteers in the Cdn Active Army, arrived in Ottawa recently. They all want a crack at the Japs. Keen, well trained and longing for a fight, these lads were trained at Maple Creek, Sask. Here CAPT. BEN ACKERMAN, Humboldt, Sask., 2nd i/c of the coy, is shown with L/CPL CHIU M of Vancouver.

47816 - This picture was taken when a coy of Cdn-born Chinese were in trg at Maple Creek, Sask. MAJOR A.M. YATES, of Regina, Sask., (right), explains the features of a Tommy gun to L/CPL CHIU M., and L/CPL LOUIE VICTOR, both of Vancouver. VICTOR has first hand knowledge of Jap baiting - he led a guerilla band in China before coming to Canada in 1938. Now he is anxious to get back and fight with modern weapons.

- 47817 - PRAIRIE TRAINED CHINESE TROOPS HOPE FOR CRACK AT JAPS -
Two typical Cdn-born Chinese, members of an all volunteer Chinese coy in the Cdn Army, who recently finished their trg and are now anxious to go places - especially to the Pacific. They are PTE YOUNG WONG (left, and his brother, PTE YOUNG, WA, both of Victoria, B.C.
- 47818 - This lad, a CdnChinese, wants another crack at the Japs. While living in China he led a guerilla band which harassed the Japs near Canton during 1937-38. He is now a member of a special coy of Cdn-Chinese in the Cdn Army and is awaiting orders to proceed to an active theatre of war. He is a wizard with this Tommy gun.
- 47819 - On the business end of the Tommy gun is L/CPL CHIU M of Vancouver, a member of a Cdn-Chinese coy in the Cdn Army, now waiting orders for service overseas. He hopes its against the Japs.
- 47820 - Playing dominoes, a popular game among Chinese, these four lads of a group of Cdn-born Chinese in the Cdn Army, are now waiting orders for overseas. From left to right: PTE YOUNG WAS; PTE CHOW FOOK KWONG; PTE LEE WAJIL and PTE WONG ON.

47032 -

Believe it or not lada this is the 'Doc' - Beautiful CAPT. ROMA IRVING MERRITT, serving overseas as a medical officer, says that most wounded soldiers address her as 'sister' when she administers anaesthetics to them in the operation room. Later, when they recognise her with the Medical Corps insignia they salute smartly and murmur 'War' '!. She is the only child of Mrs. LOUISA MERRITT, 97 Spadina Rd, Toronto.
 A native of Winnipeg, she is a graduate of the University of Toronto. After the war, DR. MERRITT plans to continue as an anaesthetist or to specialise in Public Health.
