Story: Boxing Tournament.

- 56193 - Before a crowd of about 3,000, an open air boxing tournament, first of its kind at Bookham, was presented by #10 Cdn Re Depot, last night. Bouts were conducted along slightly modified Army boxing rules, and service personnel and English civilians enjoyed an entertaining evening. The program included exhibitions of old style boxing, a re-enactment of the historic Dempsey-Tunney Chicago fight, and interpretation of the I.S.B.A. rules prior to the regular card of fights. This pic shows two Cdn sgts who gave an interesting and amusing exhibition of old-style boxing, complete with side-burns and vivid 'tattoo' marks on backs and chests. L to R: SGT. J.A.C. McKELVIE, of Toronto., and SGT. J.H. MURDEN, of Toronto.
- 56194 - Two objects undoubtedly closest to old-time boxers' hearts are displayed on brawny backs - an overflowing beer stein and a picture of a fond mother-in-law. The backs belong to SGT. J.A.C. McKELVIE and SGT. J.H. MURDEN, both of Toronto, Ont., who gave a display of old-style boxing.
- 56195 - Part of the huge crowd here avails itself of the presence of big army trucks which formed a vantage seat for them.
- 56196 - View of the ring and section of crowd. Activity in ring is during old-time boxing exhibition in which seconds have considerable difficulty in holding the contestants back until the bell rings.
