 Story: Arts and Crafts exhibition

- 56766 - In the Arts and Crafts exhibit from 22 CGH, leatherwork was a feature. Here, CSM JIM WEBB, of Toronto, is working on a piece of leather, and getting some valuable pointers from LT. O/T. HULEN CARSON, of La RIVIERE, Man.
- 56767 - Keen interest was shown in the exhibits and among the spectators were MAJ. GEN. D. SPRY, of Halifax, and Supervisor R.J. WALLACE, Auxiliary Services, who is i/c of all craft shops in the area.
- 56768 - The exhibit of brass and woodwork from #1 COMERU was a standout. It is shown with CPL. E.R. KELLY, of Windsor, Ont., left, and CPN W.W. ROSS, of Ottawa, right, each of whom has several pieces in the exhibit.
- 56769 - A mobile lathe, mounted in a 60-cwt, attracted considerable attention at the Arts & Crafts Exhibition. Here, CPN A.G. MacDONALD, of Long Branch, is at work making a compact out of a car piston, which is probably a better trick than a silk purse from a sow's ear.
- 56770 - Another outstanding exhibit of various types of handicraft is shown here with three of the men who made some of the articles. L to R: PTE. E.D. PARENT, of Fredericton; TPR. S. TRUELOVE, of Hamilton, and TPR. E. SEAPY, of Hamilton.
- 56771 - General view of the exhibits.
56772
- 56773 - Crowds watched the exhibition of pottery making by a Guildford potter. This is seen to be incorporated in Arts and Crafts work.
- 56774 - The Century Club exhibit drew large crowds during the evening.
