PACIFIC VOLUNTEERS -Halifax- Bowen..
S-1988
RCN photo by P.O. Photog. Pryor. July '45.
(Pix sent in in Budget Sept. 2/44)

Women of Canada's navy, whether they wear sailor hats, officer's tricornes or a white veil are all hoping they will be sent to the Pacific. In Halifax, where large numbers of Wrens and Wren officers and naval nursing sisters are stationed the number of "P.V.'s" was high.

Lieut. Constance Ogilvy, Toronto, wants "to stay in as long as I am needed in the service."
