RG 27 - LABOUR

Finding Aid 27-60

~~27-60~~

Labour Standards Branch, Manitoba and Saskatchewan Region, Complainant Case Files, 1971-1974, 1.5 m, Boxes 1-5.

These files deal with the Branch's activities in enforcing the Fair Wages and Hours of Labour Act which required employers having contracts with the federal government to maintain certain standards in the areas of hours of work and pay set out in the Act.

The records in this accession consist of complaint, inspection, and prosecution files. They contain complaint forms dealing with wages owing, holiday and overtime pay, wage calculations etc., as well as correspondence relating to the settlement of complaints.

The finding aid is an FRC list held in the Winnipeg Records Centre.

These records were accessioned after the proclamation of the Access to Information and Privacy Acts and must be reviewed in accordance with the provisions of the legislation before being made available for research. Consult the Access Section.
