IMMIGRATION RECORDS

Ocean arrivals 1865 to 1935

The National Archives of Canada holds microfilm copies of the passenger manifests of ships arriving at the following ports of entry:

Quebec City/Montreal, Que.: 1865 - 1935
(closed during the winter months)

Halifax, N.S.: 1881 - 1935

Saint John, N.B.: 1900 - 1935

North Sydney, N.S.: 1906 - 1935

Vancouver, B.C.: 1905 - 1935

Victoria, B.C.: 1905 - 1935

(includes some small Pacific ports)

via New York: 1906 - 1931

via eastern U.S. ports: 1905 - 1928

These passenger lists constitute the official record of immigration in this period. They contain information such as name, age, country of origin, occupation and intended destination of passengers. The records are arranged by port and date of arrival, with the exception of the years 1923 to 1924, and some of those for 1919 to 1922, when an individual Form 30A was used.

Indexes exist for the following ports and years only:

Quebec: 1865 to 1869 (25 reels)

Halifax: Jan. 1881 to Feb. 1882 (reel C-15712)

All ports: 1925 to 1935 (database in progress)

In order for you to undertake a meaningful search in the unindexed lists, it is necessary to know the exact month, year and port of arrival. The name of the ship and the last port of sailing are also helpful.

Notes:

- * Arrivals at Montreal between 1865 and 1924 are included in the Quebec lists.
- * The North Sydney lists include mostly ferry arrivals from Newfoundland and St-Pierre et Miquelon, with a few passengers in transit from other countries.
- * The U.S. lists include only the names of passengers who stated that they intended to proceed directly to Canada.
- * Passengers from mainland Europe often boarded transatlantic ships at ports in Great Britain.
- * The Canadian government did not keep records of people leaving the country.
- * The Form 30A series (1919-1924) and the 1925-1935 indexes do not include passengers in transit to the United States.
