

[6-13 January 1972]

Proceedings of the Advisory Appeal Committee set up at St. Thomas University (Fredericton, N.B.) to hear the case of Professor Marion Owen-Fekete appealing the decision taken by the Department of English and confirmed by Monsignor Donald Duffie, President of St. Thomas University, not to renew her appointment. The regular attendance during the "in camera" hearings consisted of Dr. Gary R. Hughes, Chairman of the Appeal Committee and Head of the Department of Psychology (STU), Robert A. Lake, committee member and professor (STU), Rev. G.W. Martin, committee member and registrar (STU), Marion Owen-Fekete, appellant and professor in the Department of English, Nils Vikander, adviser to the appellant and sociology professor (STU), Richard F. Kennedy, Head of the Department of English, James Reither, adviser to R.F. Kennedy and professor in the Department of English (STU). Several students and faculty members were heard as witnesses. Tapes #1-16.

Restrictions: No auditioning without the written permission of C.A.U.T..