GILLIES, James McPhail (b. 1924). Politician.

Originals, 1972-1979. 8.2 m. Finding Aid No. 1665.

Born on November 2, 1924 at Teeswater, Ontario, James McPhail Gillies was educated at the University of Western Ontario, Brown University, Rhode Island University and Indiana University (Ph.D. Economics 1952). He was Professor and Associate Dean, School of Business Administration, University of California, 1952-1965 and Dean of the Faculty of Administration Studies, York University, Toronto, 1965-1972. He was Chairman of Ontario Economic Council, 1971-1972.

Progressive Conservative Member of Parliament for the Constituency of Don Valley, Toronto, James Gillies served as economic, financial and energy critic for the Opposition. He was a candidate at the Conservative Leadership Convention of 1976 where Joe Clark won the leadership. He was named Chief Policy Advisor in 1979.

Presented in 1979 by James Gillies, House of Commons, Ottawa, Ont.

Printed material, one photograph and one tape have been transferred to the appropriate divisions.

Finding Aid No. 1665 consists of a descriptive file lists arranged alphabetically.

Member of Parliament subject files, 1972-1979 arranged alphabetically, (vols. 1-41). Subjects concern governmental legislation, Progressive Conservative Party, speeches, correspondence with constituents, companies and York University, provincial matters (Quebec and Ontario) and reference material.
