Textual	R15515	1	1	Diary - Jack Beaton	This item consists of a diary written by Jack Beaton while serving as a representative of the Canadian group of the YMCA in China, Japan and Korea. His account offers his interpretation of YMCA policies and programs in addition to his perspective on people of the Far East. Jack Beaton writes that he has a deep interest in foreign affairs from a political, economic, religious and social point of view and the diary reflects these interests. The diary talks of his visits to various YMCA buildings in the Far East, and provides some detailed architectural descriptions and their monetary value. He writes of his interactions with the other delegates on the trip, aspects of the history of the Far East, the visible effects of the Depression in the cities and villages he visited, notes on external affairs and how the Depression has affected YMCA operations in the Far East.	1935, 2008
