McIntyre, William Rogers. (1918-). Judge - Supreme Court of Canada. Ottawa, Ont.

Original, 1979-1989, 1.800 m. Finding Aid No. 1830.

1990-06-27

Mr. William R. McIntyre was born in 1918 at Lachine, Quebec and was educated at the Central Collegiate Institute, Moose Jaw; and the University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon. During World War II he served with the Royal Canadian Artillery, trained as an ariel observation pilot and served with the 666 Aerial Observation Squadron. In 1947 he was called to the Bars of Saskatchewan and British Columbia and practiced law in Victoria, B.C. until 1967. In that year he was appointed Justice to the Supreme Court of British Columbia and remained in that capacity until he was appointed a member of the Justice Court of Appeal for B.C. in 1973. In 1979 he was appointed a judge of the Supreme Court of Canada and served in that position until his retirement ten years later.

Received in 1989 from Mr. William R. McIntyre of Vancouver, British Columbia.

Access is Restricted.

"Closed" until February 15, 1989.
