The Keefer family in North America traces its origins to a Huguenot cooper of Paris, De Wald dit Tonnellier, who emigrated to Alsace ca. 1565 and changed his name to Kieffer. Two sons of Samuel Kieffer (d. 1744), a peasant farmer in the Strasbourg area, emigrated to New Jersey in 1749, and the Candian branch of the family descends from the elder, George Kieffer (b. 1739), who was a loyalist. After loyalist George Kieffer's death and the confiscation of his property, his sons George Keefer (1773-1858) and Jacob Keefer (1775-1814) moved to Upper Canada in 1790 and became the first settlers at Thorold in Welland County. The National Archives of Canada's Library has a copy of the "Memoirs of the Keefer Family," compiled in 1935 by the Reverend Robert Keefer, a descendant of Jacob Keefer, who was mortally wounded at Lundy's Lane in 1814. Jacob's elder brother, George Keefer, Sr., who was a cabinet maker by trade, prospered as a general merchant and surveyor and became one of the original promoters of the Welland Canal as well as the first president of the Welland Canal Company formed for its construction. Because of his business connections with other canal promoters Thomas and William Hamilton Merritt, material relating to George Keefer, Sr., and his sons is found in the Merritt Papers (MG 24, E 1).

This unit includes material relating to George Keefer, Sr. (1773-1858) and to four of his sons by Catherine Lampman (1778-1813), the first of his four wives, as well as to a son by his second wife, Jane Emory, née McBride (d. 1833). His eldest son, George Keefer, Jr. (1799-1885), was a civil engineer, miller, magistrate and clerk of the Division Court at Thorold. His second son, Jacob Keefer (1800-1875), was a Thorold businessman and Post-Master who held a number of offices in local government and married Christina Theresa Grant, the only child of another local businessman and office holder, Robert Grant (d. 1838), a Scotsman from Inverness. His third son, Peter Keefer (1805-1886), settled at Galt in Waterloo County. Material relating to his fourth and seventh sons, civil engineers Samuel Keefer (1811-1890) and Thomas Coltrin Keefer (1821-1915), is found in MG 29, A 2; MG 55/29, No. 17; and MG 29, D 106. His fifth son, John Keefer (1813-1892), remained in Thorold. His sixth son, James Keefer (1816-1874), was the clerk of the Division Court at Strathroy in Middlesex County. For material relating to James Keefer's son, the Port Arthur lawyer Thomas Alexander Keefer (b. 1847), see MG 29, A 9.

Presented in 1920, through the agency of [J.W.] Mitchell, by Clara Church Keefer, widow of the Toronto dentist Dr. Edwin Keefer (d. 1917), son of Jacob and Christina Grant Keefer. The material originally formed Part IV, 3 of what was then known as the Mitchell Collection (see MG 55/24, No. 134), but was placed in its present location when the Mitchell Collection was broken up. At that time, three letters from W.L. Mackenzie to Jacob Keefer, which have the same provenance as the material in this unit, were included with the papers of William Lyon Mackenzie (MG 24, B 18, Volume 1, pages 53-55, 60-61, and 94-95), but photocopies of these letters have now been placed in file 4 of this unit for the convenience of users. At the same time, the material relating to Jacob Keefer's father-in-law was separated from the rest and inventoried under Robert Grant's name in MG 24, I 19. This last was reunited with the Jacob Keefer material in 1986, as files 8-10 of this unit. Jacob Keefer's journal in file 2 of this unit was microfilmed in 1970 and is also available on reel C-4499. The Marriage Licences and Customs Blotter Book in file 10 of this unit was microfilmed in 1987 and is also available on reel H-1811.

No restriction on access.

Finding Aid No. 1877 provides an indexed transcript (presented in 1991 by the authors, Esther Summers and Brenda Young of St. Catharines, Ont.) of the register of marriage licences issued at Thorold, 1838-1874, by Jacob Keefer (see file 10, pages 26-53).

Papers of Jacob Keefer (1800-1875), which include a few that derive from his father, George Keefer, Sr. (1773-1858), and his father-in-law, Robert Grant (d. 1838). They consist of a journal, 1846-1854; sundry commissions, 1803-1857; some business papers, 1825-1874, and correspondence, 1829-1832; as well as various miscellaneous family papers, 1817-1839. Included are: a description of Thorold Township, 1817; a register of marriage licences issued at Queenston, 1825-1838, and Thorold, 1838-1874; a Custom House blotter for the Port of Queenston, 1837-1838; and a diary, 1845, of school inspections for the Niagara District. They are arranged as follows:

GEORGE KEEFER, SR. (1773-1858) PAPERS

Thorold Township. Original, 1817, 4 pages.

Description of Thorold Township, 26 November 1817, signed by George Keefer, J.P., and 12 residents of the township. The document was prepared in response to the queries of Robert Fleming Gourlay (1778-1863), author of the Statistical Account of Upper Canada (London: 1822). For further material relating to Gourlay, see MG 24, B 33. For another reply to his queries, see MG 24, I 34. (File 1)

JACOB KEEFER (1800-1875) PAPERS

Journal. Original, n.d., 1846-1854, 1857, 298 pages.

Journal kept by Jacob Keefer, 19 November 1846 - 30 April 1854. Included are an undated article on Queenston in 1819 from the Evening Telegraph, and a business advertisement, 1857, for Jacob Keefer's Welland Mills. A note regarding the cooperage connected with the establishment indicates that the family continued to be associated with the trade from which it took its name. A photograph of the mills shown in this advertisement is available (negative number C-86888). Three items, 15 September, 19 June 1856, and 15 September 1908, found between the leaves and filmed on reel C-4499, are now in file 7. (File 2) Also available on reel C-4499.

RESEARCHERS ARE ASKED TO USE THE MICROFILM.

Commissions. Originals, 1826-1857, 17 pages.

Commissions appointing Jacob Keefer to various offices in the Niagara District, in the Courts of King's Bench, 1826; Queen's Bench, 1857; and Requests, 1835, 1836, 1837. George Keefer is included in the three commissions for the Court of Requests, as well as in one for 1833 that did not name Jacob Keefer. Also, Jacob Keefer's commissions as Ensign in the 2nd Regiment of Lincoln Militia, 1826; Deputy Post-Master of Thorold, 1828; and Notary Public, 1853. (File 3)

Correspondence. Originals, 1829-1832, 45 pages.

Correspondence of Jacob Keefer, 1829-1830, relating to the claim of Mrs. Adley of Upper Canada to the estate of her brother, Jacob Sherred of New York. Correspondence, etc., of Jacob Keefer, 1830-1832, relating to the estate of Charles Gottlieb Erler, an immigrant from Saxony who drowned in the Welland Canal on 17 July 1830. (File 4)

Business Documents. Originals, 1843-1870, 24 pages.

Copy of Jacob Keefer's claim for damages against the Board of Works, 1843, together with extracts, 1827-1830, copied from the Welland Canal Company's minute book. Documents relating to land transactions between Jacob Keefer and William Hamilton Merritt, 1844; Isaac Buchanan, 1845; David Thomson, 184[9]; and the Crown, 1850. A bond of William H. Ward, and Chauncey Yale, 1851; a memorandum of 19 May 1866; a mortgage to Jacob De Witt Brewster of Leavenworth, Kansas, 1867; and a bond, 1870, of Jacob Keefer et al. to Charlotte James. Jacob Keefer's wife, Christina Keefer, is associated with him in several of the documents. (File 5)

Ledger. Original, 1851-1859, 192 pages.

Small indexed ledger kept by [Jacob Keefer], 1851-1859. Included, among others, are accounts with George Keefer, Sr.; George Keefer, Jr.; Peter Keefer; and James Keefer. (File 6)

Miscellaneous. Originals, n.d., 1842, 1845, 1856, 1862, 1908, 70 pages.

Included are an 1842 scrapbook relating to the sermon preached against the Wesleyan Methodists by the rector of Thorold, the Reverend Thomas Brock Fuller (1810-1884), who subsequently became the first Anglican Bishop of Niagara, with cuttings from the Christian Guardian and The Church, and notes concerning a committee of Thorold Methodists; a diary, 14 October - 5 December 1845, recording Jacob Keefer's school inspections as Superintendent of Common Schools for the Niagara District; Jacob Keefer's map of townships in the counties of Lincoln, Haldimand, and Welland, 19 June 1856; two shares in the stock of St. John's Church, Thorold, 1856, and a thirty-year lease of Pew No. 4 in the same church, 1856, with note of surrender, 1862; tracings of signatures [of the Prince of Wales and his entourage], 15 September [186?]; excerpt from the Toronto Mail and Empire, 15 September 1908, regarding tourists from Toronto in New York; list of the family of George Keefer, Sr., n.d. (File 7)

ROBERT GRANT (d. 1838) PAPERS

Commissions. Originals, 1803-1829, 16 pages.

Seven commissions of Robert Grant comprising five militia commissions, including two as ensign, 1803, and lieutenant, 1807, in the Southern Battalion of the Essex Militia, and two as lieutenant and captain, 1809, in the 1st Regiment of Essex Militia (Western District), as well as one as major, 1833, in the 2nd Regiment of Lincoln Militia; one as Collector of duties for the Port of Queenstown, 1825; and one as a Commissioner in the Court of King's Bench, 1829. (File 8)

Will, Inventory, Miscellaneous. Originals, 1819-1839, 27 pages.

Probate of Robert Grant's will, 1838-1839 (parchment); inventory containing particulars of Robert Grant's possessions: lands, 1816-1837; accounts with sundry persons, including his son-in-law Jacob Keefer, 1831-1833; movable property, 1833; bank stock, 1833; and a business letter from James Kerby, 10 May 1833. (File 9)

Marriage Licences and Customs Blotter Book. Original, 1825-1874, 67 pages.

Robert Grant's record book containing: register of marriage licences issued and fees collected by Robert Grant at Queenston, 1825-1838 (pages 1-20), and by Jacob Keefer at Thorold, 1838-1874 (pages 26-53); accounts, etc., regarding the collection of licence fees, 1825-1834, 1838 (pages 20-25); and Robert Grant's Custom House Blotter, for the Port of Queenston, 1837-1838 (pages 54-67). (File 10)

Also available on reel H-1811.

RECORDS
OF
ISSUED AT THOROLD
BY JACOB KEEFER
1838-1874

Jacob Keefer was married to Christine daughter of Robert Grant. The "Licences Issued at Queenston" by Robert Grant are followed with the Jacob Keefer entries. We assume that after the death of Robert Grant that his son-in-law carried on issuing the licences.

With so many early marriages missing in the Niagara area we felt that it was important to transcribe these licences. Copies have been sent to the National and Provincial Archives and deposited in local repositories to help others in researching their families. An index has been included.

These records can be found in the National Archives under:
